

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

17812

Governor^{aa} of the State^{No.} of Texas

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

REMOVED FROM THE
HOLDINGS OF THE
TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

I am today disapproving and vetoing House Bill No. 149, which is a bill with reference to hunting in various counties in Texas set out therein, because of certain defects in the bill and the request of the author that I do veto it.

This bill not having reached my desk more than ten days before the end of the 2nd called session of the 45th Legislature, at which session it was passed, pursuant to the Constitution I am filing this proclamation attached to the bill with the Secretary of State.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF,

I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal to be affirmed hereto this the 29th day of October, A. D., 1937.

James V. Davis
GOVERNOR OF TEXAS
